- 21.1 Any member failing to pay any levy imposed on members in terms of Rule 20 hereof within three months of the levy being made may be suspended from membership for such period as the Committee may resolve.

22. ENTRANCE FEE

- 22.1 The Committee may at its sole discretion require any new member upon application for membership to make payment of an entrance fee at an amount to be determined by the Committee from time to time.

23. RESIGNATION

Any financial member wishing to resign from the Club shall give notice to the Club Secretary in writing of their intention to resign. Until such notice is given such member shall be considered a member of the Club.

24. TRANSFER

A member who wishes to transfer to another Club or Centre must complete the Centre clearance form in the presence of the Club Secretary who shall sign the form and forward the form to the Centre. A transfer action will only be undertaken if the member is financial and has no debts outstanding to the Club.

25. COMPLAINTS AND DISCIPLINE

- 25.1 Any complaint about any member, whether from another member or any other person, shall be lodged in writing with the Secretary, and the procedures set out below shall be observed:

(a) The Committee shall have the following discretions:

- (i) If the nature of the complaint indicates that the subject-matter should be dealt with by any Court or tribunal, the Committee may decline to investigate or deal with the complaint until such body has dealt with the issues which are the subject of the complaint. If the decision of any such body:

* Effectively disposes of the complaint, the Committee may decide to take no further action, or may on the basis of that decision without further investigation take such action as it deems appropriate, with or without calling on the complainant or member to provide further information or to make submissions; or

- * Does not effectively dispose of the complaint, the Committee may decide to undertake such further investigations as it thinks fit, and then follow the procedures set out in paragraph (b)(iv)-(viii) of this rule.
- (ii) The Committee may decline to investigate or consider the complaint if the nature of the complaint indicates that the subject-matter is petty, frivolous, or inconsequential.
- (iii) The Committee may decline to investigate or consider the complaint if, during enquiries being made by or on behalf of the Committee, it becomes apparent to the Committee that it is not appropriate further to investigate or consider the complaint.
- (iv) If the investigation or consideration of the complaint are likely to require extensive enquiries, a considerable time input, or advice to the Committee from professional advisors, the Committee may at any time:
 - * Decline further to investigate or consider the complaint; or
 - * Require the complainant to deposit with the Society such sum as the Committee thinks fit to reimburse the Society wholly or partly for the costs of those making the enquiries or considering the complaint and/or the Society's professional advisor's fees before further investigating or considering the complaint.
- (b) The following procedures shall be observed when a complaint is investigated and considered:
 - (i) The member shall be given a copy of the complaint.
 - (ii) The member shall have the opportunity to provide a detailed written response to the complaint within not less than two weeks after receiving a copy of the complaint.
 - (iii) Further enquiries may be made by or on behalf of the Committee, and the results of those enquiries shall be made known to the complainant and the member.
 - (iv) The Committee shall allow the complainant and the member the opportunity to be heard by the Committee or any special committee established by it for the purpose of hearing and deciding upon the complaint (and no person who has any direct or indirect interest in the complaint or who is in any way biased shall hear and determine the complaint).
 - (v) The Committee or any special committee hearing and deciding upon any complaint may:

- * Dismiss the complaint, or
 - * Uphold the complaint and:
 - Reprimand or admonish the member;
 - Suspend the member from membership for a specified period;
 - Alter the membership classification of the member; or
 - Expel the member.
- (vi) The Committee or any special committee hearing and deciding upon any complaint shall respect the confidentiality of the proceedings, and
- (viii) The decision and any reasons which may be given (without any obligation to give such reasons) for that decision shall be conveyed to the complainant and the member in writing, and may at the discretion of the Committee or any special committee hearing and deciding upon any complaint be conveyed to members.
- (c) The decisions of the Committee or any special committee hearing and deciding upon any complaint under this Rule shall be final and binding on the complainant and the member complained against, and shall not be subject to any review or challenge.
- 25.2 A member whose membership is terminated under these Rules shall remain liable to pay all subscriptions and levies to the end of the calendar year in which the membership was terminated, shall cease to hold himself or herself out as a member of the Society, and shall return to the Society all material produced by the Society (including any Membership certificate, handbooks and manuals).
26. BY-LAWS
- 26.1 The Committee or the Club in General Meeting may at any time make such regulations and by-laws for the conduct of the Club or of its members, as it shall be considered necessary. Such regulations or by-laws shall not in any way conflict with these Rules nor be repugnant to the provisions contained in the Incorporated Societies Act 1908.
- 26.2 A copy of such regulations or by-laws shall always be open to inspection by members.
27. FUNDRAISING
- 27.1 No member or group of members may participate in any fundraising activities using the Club name, whether on Club premises or otherwise, without first obtaining the consent of the Committee. The Committee may impose such terms and conditions and may think fit as a condition of granting its consent.

28. SERVICE AWARDS

- 28.1 Service Awards may be awarded to members of the Club to recognise their outstanding service to the Club.

29. AUDITOR

- 29.1 The Club Auditor shall be a fully qualified member of the New Zealand Society of Accountants, not a member of the Executive Committee or the Committee or a Sub Committee and shall be elected at each Annual General Meeting of the Club. The Retiring Auditor shall be eligible for re-election. The accounts of the Club shall be audited as to the correctness thereof and the balance sheet verified by the Auditor not later than the 30th day of April in each year.

30. INDEMNITY

- 30.1 No officer or member of the Committee shall be liable for the acts or defaults of any other officer or member of the Committee or any loss occasioned thereby, unless occasioned by their wilful default or by their wilful acquiescence.
- 30.2 The officers, Committee and each of its members shall be indemnified by the Society for all liabilities and costs incurred by them in the proper performance of the functions and duties, other than as a result of their wilful default.

31. COMMON SEAL

- 31.1 The Committee shall provide a Common Seal for the Club which shall remain in the possession of the Club Secretary or such other Officer appointed by the Committee and where required shall be affixed to any document in pursuance of a resolution of the Committee in the presence of not less than two members of such Committee.

32. ALTERATIONS TO RULES

- 32.1 These Rules may be altered, added to or rescinded or otherwise amended by a resolution passed by a three-quarter majority of those present at a duly convened Annual General Meeting or at a Special General Meeting of the Club.
- 32.2 Members wishing to propose any alteration, addition, suspension of these Rules shall give notice in writing of such desire at least 14 days prior to the date of a meeting and seven days prior to the date of a Special General Meeting and such notice shall state the proposed alteration, addition, suspension on the Club notice board.
- 32.3 A copy of the Club's rules must be lodged with the Club's solicitors and also displayed prominently in the Clubrooms.
- 32.4 A duplicate copy of every such amendment shall forthwith be sent to the Registrar of Incorporated Societies.

33. ACCOUNTS

- 33.1 The funds of the Club shall be under the sole control of the Committee which shall cause a Bank account or accounts to be opened and determine the methods of operation and as to the investment of funds that are not immediately required.

- 33.2 All disbursements from the accounts of the Club are to be by cheque or voucher signed by any two of the President, The Treasurer or the Secretary. If the offices of Treasurer and Secretary are combined any one of the other Committee members shall be the other authorised officer appointed to sign cheques or vouchers. No moneys shall be paid (except in an emergency) otherwise than pursuant to a decision duly entered in the minute book of the Committee or a General Meeting of the members.

34. PECUNIARY GAIN

No member shall receive or obtain any direct pecuniary gain except as salary or honorarium from the funds, property or operations of the Club.

35. SPONSORSHIP

The Club may accept such sponsorship as the Committee determines appropriate from time to time.

36. WINDING UP CLAUSE

In the event of the disbandment or winding up of the Club, the property of the Club, shall be realised and the surplus assets available after payment of all liabilities shall be vested in the Centre as trustee and the Centre shall apply the same to any new Waterpolo Club which may be formed in the Auckland District provided that the aims and objectives of the new Club are similar to those of the defunct Club.

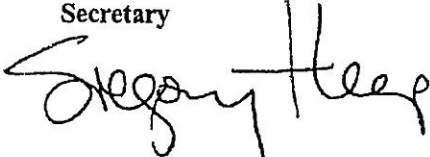

37. RULES BINDING

If any question or dispute shall arise as to the construction of these Rules or any of them or the application thereof the decision of the Committee thereon shall be final and binding upon all members.
